

The people of Indiana spoke loudly and won a Telephone Privacy Law that is stronger and more protective of consumers than the Federal version. This law is being challenged by members of the Consumer Bankers Association. Please tell them to get over it and move on. The people of Indiana have spoken and we expect businesses of all kinds to respect our choice. Do not allow any weakening of our Indiana law!